Do We Worship At McCarthy's Shrine?

POLITICAL PAGEANT

By Wayne Swinme

Keep Out, Black Boy!

With a group of other youths I took my sacred faces physical examination this past week. While in Des Moines I saw hundreds of other Americans, representing numerous religious beliefs and several racial origins. But no distinction was made because of these reasons, for all of them had come in obedience to the voice of their government. The obligation of possible military service weighed equally upon each of them, and they were there to fulfill their duty.

Some time after finishing our examination, we entered a restaurant for an evening meal. The place was clean and inviting, and I settled down to enjoy my supper, until my eye caught sight of a prominently placed sign on the wall. In bold letters it made clear that "Negro patronage is not solicited here."

You might say that this is quite an insignificant matter to write an editorial about. But this is something that goes much deeper. Think back to your grade school days. Do you remember how you felt at being told that the North—our part of the country—wanted all men to be free, and how we accomplished that in the Civil war? Maybe we thought that it was all settled then, that all men were equal before the law as we know it. Yet, we are told that a man would be treated in accordance with his worth, and not according to the shade of his skin.

Racial prejudice, we know, was confined to the South. That belief, never more than an illusion, has been shattered within the four of our own experience. We know—every one of us—of some incident in which a Negro has been unfairly discriminated against. Even in Waverly, this cowardly and ignorant attitude has prevailed, and our darkskinned brothers have been excluded from all social eating places. It is this illwill, or "Christianity," that is the cause of our present predicament.

The customary excuses have been repeated a thousand times, and they are not worth telling. It isn't just a few, but all of us who prove by our indifference or acquiescence that we have lost faith in the ideal upon which the foundation of our democracy is based. Just this—how can we work for the dissemination of what we believe is right when we betray it by our daily actions? Hypocrisy like this weakens rather than builds, and it must needs be that the final decision will depend upon the purity of our ideals. Let us not fail in this matter.

From Our Readers

Dear Editor:

My heartiest congratulations to you, to all the members of the TRUMPET staff and to your adviser, Miss Wolff, upon the fine recognition given your leadership and work in being awarded an "All-American" letter from the foundation of our democracy. It comes just this—how can we work for the dissemination of what we believe is right when we betray it by our daily actions? Hypocrisy like this weakens rather than builds, and it must needs be that the final decision will depend upon the purity of our ideals. Let us not fail in this matter.

My heartiest thanks to you and your co-workers for all your hard work, your fine attitude, and your loyalty to our college.

Very sincerely yours,

(signed) C.H. Becker

Cindermen Trowned In First Dual Meet

By Rudy Koiberg

Knight tracksters traveled to Dubuque last Wednesday and suffered a stinging 6-40 defeat at the hands of a well-balanced, powerful Dubuque university track squad.

Led by distance star Johannsen, the Spartans swept first places in 12 of 16 events. Johannsen put on a terrific exhibition, taking top honors in the mile, two-mile and half-mile runs.

Coach Al Buegard's mile relay quartet of DeYoung, Reeg, Grube and Redewald captured Wartburg's first place in the track events, winning with a 3:43.4 time.

Umnacht, Campbell and Thoms took better in the field events with the Orange and Black capturing a first in the discus, Jim Umnacht, the platter, Campbell and Bostack were involved in a three-way tie with Dubuque's Parcell for first in the pole vault. Pete Becker tied two Spartans for first place in the high jump.

Coach Buegard took a contingent of six cindermen to Des Moines this week end to participate in the Drake Relays.

Wartburg entered relay squads in the mile and half-mile events. Running the half-mile is a foursome composed of John DeYoung, Brian Stewart, Cliff Grube and Nick Camp. Toting the baton in the mile are DeYoung, Elmer Grube and Bob Redewald.

UJ Next Poo.
Next Wednesday the Knights take on Upper Iowa. What is expected to be a close battle. Last Senior day the Axmen handed Upper Iowa a stinging 81-55 defeat.

Wartburg's oval will be the scene of a feature track attraction May 12, when the Iowa conference division meet will be held here.

Below is the summary of Wednesday's Dubuque meet:
Mile run—1. Johannsen D. 2. Kennedy D. 3. Frye D. Time, 4:48.
440-yard dash—1. Livingston D. 2. DeYoung W. 3. Miller D.

Roger Dirks Wins Bowling Tourney

Posting a four-game total of 774, Roger Dirks, junior from Clinton, snatched top honors in the college bowling tournament staged last Wednesday. The tournament concluded the college bowling for the season.

Only 18 men entered from the college ranks, somewhat fewer than the expected number of 49. Behind Dirks was Clarence Brunings with a 770. Frank Peeper with 763, Al Braun schweig fourth with 747, and Roy Glahn fifth with 738.

As predicted, approximately one-third of those entering the tournament received prize money for placing in the first five slots. First place was worth $505, second $405, third $305, fourth $235, and fifth place was worth $110.

Entering the tournament were Bill Christ, Al Braunschweig, Frank Peeper, Roger Dirks, Marvin Renken, Louis Larsen, Hank Grankowsky, Lyle Niemeyer, Keith McDougal, Harold Steinhauer, Roy Glahn, the Rev. Dean Kilgus, Lyle Wilburn, Ed Czech, Clarence Brunings and Roger Swanson. Because of few entries, no trophies were awarded.

Next year's plans for bowling include the revision of the college bowling league to an eight-team loop. Those interested in league bowling for next year should contact Roger Dirks to assure a position on a team.

Knights Gain Tie In First Golf Meet

Knight Nine Faces LaCrosse Today

Wartburg golfers managed a 7-7 1/2 tie with Dubuque last Saturday in the season's first meet. Only four Knights were on hand for the outing, being the one for first match, Dick Lynch, freshman clubber, took medalist honors with a 41-40 over the par-35 course.

Rain and the small temporary greens in use probably accounted for the higher than usual scores.

Naught linksmen participated in the Iowa collegiate meet at Ames, and travel to Coe Monday. Next home meet is Senior Day when Wartburg tangles with IESC and Upper Iowa.

Following is the scoring in last Saturday's meet:

Edgar, 83 (D) won by default, 85, 2-1.

Kramer, 85, (W) beat Coppage, 85, 2-1.

Lynch, 81, (W) beat Taylor, 83, 2-1.

Swain, 96, (D) beat Bracklin, 99, 2-1.

Nase, 93, (W) beat Baber, 95, 2-1.

Wartburg baseball crew meets LaCrosse teachers this afternoon on the Knights diamond.

Last year the boys from Wisconsin dropped the Knights 10-9, on a ninth inning rally. Yesterday's game with Winona teachers was postponed until this morning because of wet grounds.

To date the Knights have but one game under their belts, an 8-7 loss at Coe. Last weekend's road trip to Westmar and Buena Vista failed to materialize because of bad weather. Both games will be played as parts of a doubleheader when the two northern division schools journey here later in the season.

Coach Ernie Oppermann's crew have three games scheduled for next week, as they travel to Upper Iowa Tuesday, and face the Peacocks here Wednesday in a Senior day tilt. Saturday Wartburg meets Coe here.

Dreier Witty, Shrewd In Address Here

By Don Groskreutz

Alex Dreier, the popular and fluent NBC news commentator, last Tuesday evening drew to a dramatic and timely close what has probably been the biggest year in Wartburg Artist Series history as he discussed the Truman-MacArthur controversy.

Speaking before an audience of 1,800 in the Knights gymnasium, Dreier blended information, shrewd observations and clever humor to make the evening a pleasant one for his audience.

Asks Open Minds

Dreier first pleaded for an unbiased approach to the whole question, adding that current prejudice against Truman too often expresses itself in MacArthur's favor. He named two issues in the conflict, the minor question of disobedience and the major problem of America's Asiatic policy.

Pointing out that Truman's claim of insubordination was justified, his news analyst explained that the policy of suggesting defensive forces in Japan rather than those of other Asiatic allies was adopted by a council of the Chinese Reds, the general by implication attributed this policy to the administration, and Truman blew his top.

Weather Begins Him. Originally scheduled for March 15, Dreier's appearance had to be postponed because of a blizzard. The famed broadcaster said he liked the friendliness of the Iowa people, but found it hard to appreciate the weather.

"Last time it was snow," he said, "now there are floods."

Dreier easily captivated his audience as he sandwiched his observations on Korea between choice and generous portions of satirical humor. His favorite victim was Harry Truman, but his own person ran a close second, which fact gave delightful personality to the whole discussion.

MacArthur May Win. "You may rest assured," said the speaker, "that MacArthur knew what he was doing when he got himself discharged. In this way he is able to present his case more dramatically before the American people."

He believes that MacArthur has a good chance for success.

"We may be forced in the near future to adopt the policy that MacArthur advocates," he said, after emphasizing his contention that the general's and the administration's views were not so different as he the American public seems to believe.

In response to questions, Dreier admitted that the adoption of MacArthur's proposed policy might draw us deeper and deeper into Asia, and that this is probably what the Russians want.

"What it amounts to," he said, "is the taking of the calculated risk. The only other alternative is the complete withdrawal of the United States from Korea, and we aren't prepared to pay the price for that."

Has Objective View. Addressing his audience with detailed analysis, the journalist concentrated on major issues. His was an overall, objective appraisal. He avoided strident predictions and fast judgments.

"I'm not one of those analysts," he said, "who has a pipeline to Moscow."

He seemed more interested in presenting objectively the knowledge which is his as a news commentator and in getting the audience to think clearly with him. The only criticism ventured here is that some of his humor may have interfered with that objectivity since it was sporadically presented throughout his speech.

Spanish Classes To Sponsor Films

In celebration of Pan-American day, the Spanish department will sponsor two Spanish-American films on the stage of the Knights gymnasium Monday, April 30.

"Our Neighbors down the Road," a film on travel through South America, is in getting the audience to think clearly with him. The only criticism ventured here is that some of his humor may have interfered with that objectivity since it was sporadically presented throughout his speech.

Spanish films may also be of interest to sociology and geography students, according to Miss Anna Elia Jacob, Spanish instructor.

In addition, the singing of a group of songs by the Spanish classes is tentatively planned. No admission fee will be charged.

Opera 'La Boheme' To Be Shown Sat.

"La Boheme," a German film of Puccini's opera, will be shown in the Little Theater tonight at 8 p.m.

Featuring Martha Segerst, soprano, and Jan Kleppner, tenor, in the starring roles, the opera tells of the lives and loves of four Bohemian characters, a poet, an artist, a musician and a philosopher. The Vienna Philharmonic orchestra is under the direction of Robert Stolz.

Although the dialogue is in German, there are English titles on the film so that Americans will be able to follow the plot.

Hans Sachs Verein is sponsoring the movie. There will be a free-will offering.

Snyder, Heinecken Win

Lola Snyder, senior, and Ted Heinecken, freshman, got out their magnifying glasses last Saturday and spotted the five misspelled words in the TRUMPET ads. Both received a free ticket to the Waverly theater.

Semester Project Launched Tuesday

Second semester student body project was launched last Tuesday, with George Krumrey, senior, and Emmet Busch, freshman, as co-chairmen.

Bibles for India is the project. Each eighty cents will buy a Bible printed in Telugu language. The Bibles will be given to the workers and literate confirmands.

To oppose Christianity in India, friends of Russia in Bengal have printed "The U. S. S. R., Land of Freedom." These books are given to the people. The above two books mentioned are on display at the bookstore.

Fifty solicitors are being used and each will contact ten or twelve students. By school request the project will end May 1, because of the heavy activities schedule. If anyone has not been approached by May 1, they may see Anna Muench or Emmet Busch.

"Students are reminded," says Krumrey, "that as with the wild owl's mite, it is not a matter of what is in their pockets but what is in their hearts."
